Invitation to 2012 Mn Market Seminar

On the occasion of the 2012 Mn Market Seminar held by Shanghai Ganglian E-commerce Co., Ltd (MYSTEEL), we sincerely request the honor of the presence of you or a reputed official from your firm at Guangxi Wharton International Hotel (No. 88 Minzu Avenue, Nanning Guangxi, China), P. R. China, on April 23-24th, 2012. We sincerely invite you to come to a meeting to discuss the development of manganese alloys in the current grim situation!

In the year of 2011, Mn alloys manufacturers keeps in the status of low profit, high port stocks and declining price of Mn ore. They have to face the problem of power limitation, fluctuating market, obvious differences of South and North as well as the weak demand of downstream industries. In 2012, Mn alloy manufacturers will continue to face a severe test.

Facing of the economic growth slowdown and the sluggish steel market, how will the Mn alloy enterprises develop? Mn overcapacity and sustained expansion of production capacity will bring what impact to Mn enterprises? How will the mining companies operate in the new year and how to choose the right time to purchase?

During this seminar, we'll invite the macroeconomists, ferroalloy enterprises, mining companies and domestic famous steel mills participants to make a speech and interpret the hot issues of Mn alloys trend. The seminar provides an unmissable opportunity for enterprises to have trade talks, broaden business channels and enhance relationships. Let's building the common business opportunities and communicating platform together!

We look forward to your arrival and look forward to meet you in the beautiful city of Nanning!

Key issues to be discussed include:

- 1、China's macro-economic situation and politics in 2012
- 2、Demand for Mn alloy of domestic steel mills in 2012
- 3、Analysis of Market trends for Mn products in 2012
- 4、Summary of first half year and forecast of second half for imported Mn market in 2012
- 5、Strategic conversion on steel mill's purchasing in 2012
- 6、Trade negotiation for up and downstream industries on Mn Products.
